SHELTERED SERVICES REVIEW

June 2009

A Presentation by

PREVIOUSLY

- Wardens offered 'care' as well as 'support'
- They were involved in running activities in schemes
- They were often called out at night
- They had to store paperwork in their own homes
- In reality they were never off duty!

CHANGES

A Presentation by

- Obviously things had to change in order to continue to receive adequate funding from Supporting People
- The introduction of SP in 2003 had largely been ignored and there was a lot of work required in order to bring the service up to scratch
- The 'REVIEW' was born

How are we Assessed?

- The Government Inspection by the Audit Commission is undertaken every 2 years on the ALMO
  - This gives us our 'Star' rating as an organisation
- Supporting People assess us continually to ensure we provide Value for Money
  - use a Quality Assessment Framework (QAF) which has specific guidelines we have to follow

WHAT IS A QAF?

A Presentation by

- The QAF was introduced in 2003 and sets out the standards expected in the delivery of Supporting People Services. It awards in levels of A,B,or C.
- The QAF identifies methods of evidencing achievement
- The QAF is a practical tool for ensuring continuous improvement in delivering housing-related support

QAF – FEBRUARY 2009

  - The 'Plan' is intended to
    - identify any needs the customer may have
    - any risks both to the customer, the SHO and the Organisation

Our Last Assessment

- Under the 'old' QAF there were 6 Core Objectives
- We were assessed by Supporting People in 2008 and achieved the following:

'New' Processes

A Presentation by

- A Needs Based Assessment Support Plan has to be completed for every customer in Sheltered Housing
